At the recent IASI World Congress and General Assembly in Beijing, SIRC bid for and was awarded the next Congress for the International Association for Sports Information in 2009. The Congress date has not been set yet, but it will probably be in June 2009, a very wonderful time to be in Ottawa, Ontario. See the Press release:

SIRC will also be moving their office in October from Albert St. in downtown Ottawa to a new office suite around the corner on Elgin Street. With a greater floor space, SIRC's marvelous sport sciences and recreation collection will also be open to researchers once again.

2.1 Notable Websites

Substantive Updates on Scholarly Sport Sites

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/library/ssportsite/archives.html>

As a result of research conducted for a paper presented recently at the IASI World Congress in Beijing, May 2005, two parts within the Sport Archives, Special Collections and Virtual Exhibits pages have been greatly updated. For the Canadian section, ArchiviaNet, Canada's network and database of archival holdings was searched and the major fond-level records listed. The first section has the most important records held by the Library and Archives Canada (LAC), followed by a sampling of the holdings of provincial repositories (there are too many files to list everything). For example, the LAC records:

- Amateur Athletic Union of Canada fonds 1884-1972
- Canada's Sports Hall of Fame fonds [ca. 1890-1986]
- Canadian Amateur Football Association fonds 1949-1982
- Canadian Amateur Hockey Association fonds [ca. 1924-1972].

Archival Records held in Provincial Repositories:

- British Columbia Rugby Union fonds, 1889-1930
- Ontario Gymnastic Federation fonds, 1967-1976
- Fonds Comit   organisateur des Jeux olympiques de 1976 (XXI Olympiad, Montreal)
- Ottawa Jewish Men's Softball League fonds, 1923-1989

For the United States, the first part has a listing of the major archival databases and the state/regional networks, followed by specific archival holdings by institution or society. There are over 300 specific archive collections listed, with most personal archive listings showing added keywords to identify the person's sport/physical education contribution. For example, the following two listings for the University of Minnesota:

University of Minnesota, Library, Kautz Family YMCA Archives

- Includes the historical records of the national organization, the YMCA of the United States and also the records of the Minneapolis and Greater New York YMCAs and related organizations, 1887-1997.

University of Minnesota, University Archives

- Henry Archacki Papers, 1934-1979 (Polish American, sports editor & reporter)
- American Sokol Organization, Western District Records, 1975-1978
- Anne M. Butner Papers, 1900-1912 (director, physical culture)
- George Burbank Webster Papers, 1899-1903 (UM football player)

Digital/Fulltext Sport Books and Serials

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/library/sssportsite/digital.html>

This new section was added to Scholarly Sport Sites and contains a listing of freely accessible sport monographs found in digitized collections, including the Amateur Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles (AAFLA) Virtual Library, the Making of America (MOA) projects at Cornell University and University of Michigan, Harvard University's Open Collections Program (HU-WW) and the eScholarship Repository of the University of California (UC-CDL). For instance:

- Ainsworth, Dorothy Sears. A history of physical education in colleges for women. NY: A.S. Barnes and Co., 1930. (HU-WW)
- Alexander, Christine. Greek athletics. NY: The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1925. (UC-EOS)
- Athletic sports for boys: a repository of graceful recreations for youth. NY: Dick & Fitzgerald, 1866. (MOA-UM)
- Behee, John Richard. Fielding Yost's legacy to the University of Michigan. Ann Arbor: Dist by Uhlrich's Books, 1971. (UM-DGC)
- Bull, William Perkins. From rattlesnake hunt to hockey: the history of sports in Canada and the sportsmen of Peel, 1798 to 1934. (Peel)

This listing will eventually become redundant once the Google Print digitizing project <http://print.google.com/> is well under way in a few years and the Making of America projects develop into more comprehensive digitized collections.

Specific Fulltext Sport Periodicals & Periodical Articles

The digitized books listing is followed by a section showing fulltext sport periodicals and a sampling of sport-related periodical articles found in the late 19th century general periodicals, part of the MOA projects. Again, the titles listed are freely accessible. For example:

American Golfer (1908-1920) (AAFLA)(Pub. 1908-1936)

Baseball Magazine (1908-1918) (AAFLA) (Pub.v1-81, 1908-1948)

The Century (1881-1899) (MOA-CU)

- Camp, Walter, College athletics, v46, no2, June 1893, p.204-211.
- Marquand, Allan. The old Olympic Games, v51, no6, Apr 1896, p. 803-816.
- De Coubertin, Pierre, The Olympic Games of 1896, v53, no1, Nov 1896, p. 39-54.
- Baillie-Grohman, W.A. Sports in the seventeenth century. v54, no3, July 1897, p 390-402.

The SSS updated archives section is a work in progress. Your editor welcomes input on archival records that should be added to a university or college listing for it is sometimes difficult identifying all the appropriate records. Through additional information supplied by personal contacts, some of the specific institutional listings are now very comprehensive, e.g. University of Illinois and Springfield College. Please contact Gretchen Ghent, gghent@ucalgary.ca
